

“VOTE NO”

To the NYS Constitutional Convention
(Proposition 1 ON THE BACK of your ballot)

Thanks to your POLITICAL ACTION CONTRIBUTIONS

The Subway-Surface Supervisors Association knows firsthand the struggle dealing with Albany to help our members.

A NYS Constitution Convention CAN THREATEN EVERYBODY!

WE ARE URGING EVERYONE TO SPREAD THE WORD AND VOTE NO this November 7th at the voting booths.

If a NYS Constitution Convention passes some of the rights of living in New York can be at risk including, but not limited to:

YOUR JOB

YOUR PENSION

RETIREMENT SECURITIES

STATE BUDGET SPENDING CAPS

STATE DEBT LIMITS

SOCIAL WELFARE NEEDS

FREE PUBLIC EDUCATION INCLUDING

PUBLIC SCHOOLS, LIBRARIES, COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTIONS

STATE PARKS

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

UNIONS AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Scott Reif, spokesman for the Senate majority leader, John J. Flanagan, a Republican, said a convention would be a waste of money.

“A constitutional convention will cost hardworking taxpayers millions of dollars that could be better invested in schools, road and bridge construction, and tax cuts,” he said. “In addition, the possibility exists that radical New York City interests could seize control of the process, spend huge sums of cash and cause irreparable damage to our state government.”
